

Three acknowledged beauties, two American, one Swedish. Miss Margaret Stearns was voted the prettiest student in Northwestern University, Chicago; the Swedish girl was the winner in the Dag-Mad (Stockholm) contest, and the third is Miss Pearl Howell, called "Brooklyn's prettiest girl."

The Swedish beauty.

Miss Pearl Howell.
Wide World.

Picturesque incident in the Prince of Wales's tour of India. Photograph shows his visit to Daly College, at Indore. The Prince is in the leading motor car at right, and the long string following and passing between the lines of soldiers contain the college faculty and distinguished guests of the occasion.
Copyright, Central News.

New portrait of Frau Ebert, wife of the President of Germany, and their son.
Keystone View.

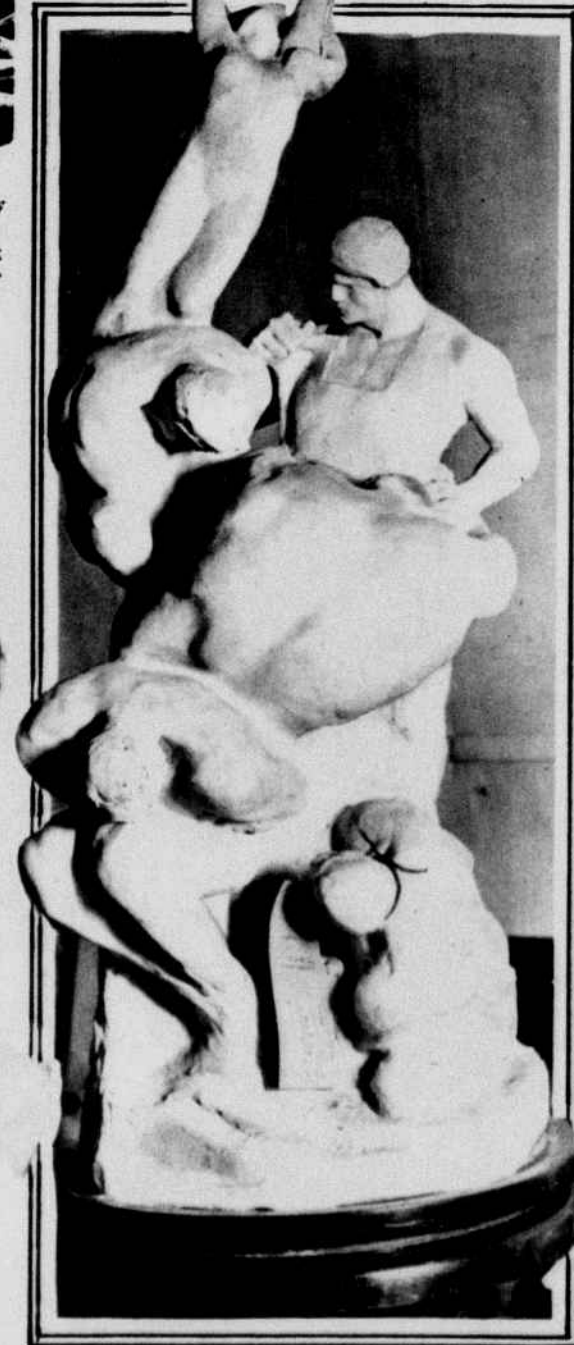

"Toilers of the Sea," a camera study of the mackerel fishers of Penzance, England, with part of a catch. One smack brought in 60,000 fish, netting £500 for the crew.
Wide World.

Winter scene of unusual beauty caught by the camera. It shows an old watermill in the Bavarian Highlands after the ice king had gripped the stream and mantled the trees and hills with its white tracery.
Gilliams.

Latest picture of Miss Catherine Hughes, daughter of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes. Her engagement to Chauncey Lockhart Waddell of New York was announced recently.
Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

One of the larger exhibits at the Independent Artists' Show at the Waldorf. It is called "Steam" and is the work of Daisy B. King.
Copyright, Paul Thompson.